Serious Charges Against Judge-

Elect of the Second District Court.

FRAUD AND BRIBERY ALLECED.

Jurors for January Term-Willis Brown Lecture -- Boys Caught Stealing .- News Briefs,

A strong effort is being made to prevent the installation of Judge J. A. Howell on the bench of the Second district court, or to remove him therefrom, on the ground that his election was effected through fraud and questionable methods, and that H. H. Rolapp received the greatest number of legal votes. The case was filed in the district court today, and developments of a sensational character are looked for. The complaint in which his right to the office is denied has been drawn and is filled with allegations charging im-proper and reprehensible methods on the part of Howell or his agents. It is also set up that H. H. Rolapp was legally elected and the court is asked to so declare. Charles C. Richards of Ogden, O. W. Powers and C. S. Varian of Salt Lake have been retained to push

The complaint first recites generally that Rolapp received more legal votes than any other person, and should, therefore, be declared elected. It also ets up that the defendant Howell, by himself and through others, gave and offered to give to diverse voters money and property, and other valuable considerations for the purpose of securing his election. And that said Howell committed divers and sundry offenses leges that Howell prior to his election promised in case he were elected to ive to and procure for one Burdick the osition of court stenographer of the nd judicial district for the purpose procuring Burdick to vote for said well, and for inducing Burdick to inace the votes of others for him. y himself or through others acting for him, promised the position of assistant ourt stenographer or some position less than $75 per month in salary to one the purpose of influencing the of Dye for Howell, and that Dye ild secure other voters to vote for The position of assistant court stenographer was also promised, it is alleged, to Mr. Hooper, also to one Miss to one Daiton and to one Moyes. er specification is that the de-before his election and for the purpose of securing votes offered to ndeavor to procure for one Reinhardt Discn the office of state food and dairy

Another particularization is that the sald Howell by himself and through persons paid or caused to be paid and for the use of divers persons and electors large sums of money and ther valuable consideration for the purpose that the same or some part thereof should be used by the said elec-lors for the purpose of procuring the election of the said Howell and for the purpose of bribing said electors. That said Howell by himself and through others paid to one Oliver Penrod $20 and other valuable considerations and promised to pay him the further sum $100 and other valuable considerao vote for said Howell and inducing cans of carrying out this agreement, Penrod, it is alleged, made arrangement with a number of farm-ers residing in Liberty, Weber county, eby they should take a quantity of t to the firm of Howell & Sons in gden and get 80 cents per bushel for same on consideration that they tote for said Howell. The wheat had been frost-bitten and was not worth that sum per bushel, and, it is charged, this arrangement was merely a method of giving a consideration for votes.

Penrod, it is claimed, further, by means of giving away whisky, cigars and money influenced many others to vote for Howell. Others who are alleged to have received money for similar purposes are Joseph Harbertson, $30,

Another allegation in the complaint Another allegation in the complaint is that Howell, while acting as municipal judge of the court of Ogden City, rendered a judgment against Hyrum Stallings, and that prior to election he offered to pay a part of the judgment, making the offer either himself or through others, all for the purpose of securing the said Stallings' vote

Yet another specification is that the defendant either himself or through others promised to pay to certain so-called Howell clubs certain specified sums of money to be divided amongst the aggregate membership in case that said Howell should be elected, and that many did so vote because of said ofers of money There are other allegalons of much the same nature, their number being so many that almost all the letters of the alphabet are used in indicating the subdivisions of the

The filing of the contest will not, of course prevent Howell from qualifying and entering upon the duties of his Some other judge, of course, be secured to hear and try the case.

The complaint was filed at 12 o'clock today and was set for hearing Tuesday,

JURORS FOR JANUARY TERM. A drawing of jurors for service in January at the Second district court has been made. These will be the first jurors to appear before Judge Howell.
